中考英语完形填空：停电夜的烛光

完形填空原文

It was a stormy night. The wind was strong and the rain was heavy. Suddenly, all the lights in our dormitory went 1. We were in complete darkness. Some girls started to 2, but our monitor, Lin Lin, stayed calm.

"Don't be afraid. We have candles in the storage room," she said. She took out her flashlight and went to get them. When she 3, we lit the candles. The small flames made the dark room feel warm and 4. Lin Lin suggested we tell stories to pass the time. We sat in a circle, and each person shared a story from their childhood.

As we talked and laughed, we forgot about the 5 outside. The storm seemed less scary. We discovered that we had never spent so much time 6 together like this. Without phones or computers, we finally had real conversations. Someone said, "Maybe the power outage was a gift. It brought us 7."

When the lights came back on an hour later, we felt a little 8. The candlelight had created something special. That night taught us that the best moments often come when we 9 everything and enjoy the simple things. Sometimes we need to slow down and 10 the people around us.
