中考英语完形填空：街角的热豆浆

完形填空原文

There is a small shop at the corner of our street. Every morning, an elderly couple sells fresh soy milk there. I pass by the shop on my way to school, but I had never stopped to buy anything until one cold winter day.

That morning, I left home in a 1 and forgot to eat breakfast. By the time I reached the street corner, I was shaking with cold and hunger. The old lady noticed me and called out, "Young one, come and have something 2." I walked over, a little shy. She poured a cup of hot soy milk and handed it to me. " 3 it. It's on the house today."

I took the cup with both hands. The warmth spread through my fingers and reached my heart. That simple cup of soy milk 4 more than any breakfast I had ever had. I thanked her again and again. She just smiled and said, "When you grow up, remember to show 5 to others who need it."

Since then, I have become a 6 customer. Every time I pass by, I buy a cup of soy milk. But more importantly, I have never forgotten her words. Last month, when I saw a lost child crying at the bus station, I 7 to help him find his mother. The kindness I received that winter morning was like a seed. It has grown in my heart and 8 me to pass it on.

That small shop at the corner doesn't sell expensive things. But it sells something far more valuable—9 and warmth. In our busy lives, we often forget the power of a simple act of kindness. A cup of hot soy milk on a cold morning can 10 someone's whole day. I will always be grateful for that winter morning and the lesson it taught me.
