中考英语完形填空：美术室的调色板

完形填空原文

Wang Yue loved the art room. Every Tuesday afternoon, she would sit by the window and 1 her paints. She had a wooden palette that her father had given her. It was not new or expensive, but it was her most 2 thing.

One day, a new student named Lin Na joined the art class. She sat next to Wang Yue but seemed 3. "I'm not good at drawing," Lin Na said quietly. Wang Yue smiled and said, "Neither was I at first. Let me 4 you." She put her palette between them and showed Lin Na how to mix colors. Red and yellow made orange. Blue and yellow made green. Lin Na's eyes grew wide with 5.

Week by week, the two girls became good friends. They often painted together after school. Wang Yue noticed that Lin Na was getting better and better. Her paintings became more 6 and full of life. One afternoon, Lin Na said, "Thank you for teaching me. You are the kindest friend I have ever had." Wang Yue felt warm inside. She knew that 7 with others could make everyone happier.

At the end of the term, there was an art show at school. Both Wang Yue and Lin Na had their works on the wall. Wang Yue looked at their paintings side by side and smiled. The palette had not only helped her create art, but also helped her 8 a friendship. Sometimes the best gifts are not things we buy, but the time and 9 we give to help others grow.

Wang Yue still keeps that old palette. Every time she sees it, she remembers the joy of 10 and the beauty of true friendship.
