中考英语完形填空：暴雨中的善意

完形填空原文

One summer afternoon, a sudden rainstorm hit our city. I was walking home from the bookshop without an umbrella. The rain was so 1 that I could hardly see the road ahead. I had to run to the nearest bus stop to find shelter.

When I got there, I was already soaking wet. There were several other people waiting under the small roof. An old lady was standing at the edge, and the rain was still falling on her 2. She looked cold and worried. I moved to one side so that she could stand in a drier spot. She smiled at me and said, "Thank you, young man. You are very 3."

We waited for about twenty minutes, but the rain did not 4. Some people started to get anxious. Then a man in a white car pulled over near the bus stop. He rolled down the window and asked, "Does anyone need a 5? I can take a few people." The old lady and two other women got into his car. Before she left, the old lady took something out of her bag. It was a small folding umbrella. She 6 it to me and said, "Take this. I don't need it now."

I was very touched by her 7. A stranger whom I had just met gave me something she could have kept for herself. I opened the umbrella and started walking home. The rain was still pouring, but I felt 8 inside.

When I got home, I told my mum what had happened. She said, "Kindness is like a circle. When you help someone, it often comes 9 to you." I thought about her words carefully. That afternoon, I learned an important lesson: a small act of kindness can make a big 10 in someone's day.
