完形填空原文

Zhao Yang was known for being honest, but sometimes his honesty got him into trouble. One afternoon, he saw his classmate Liu Fang drop a brand-new pen on the floor without 1. He picked it up and put it on her desk after class.

The next morning, Liu Fang couldn't find her pen. She looked everywhere and then noticed Zhao Yang had the same 2 of pen. "Did you take my pen?" she asked coldly. Zhao Yang was shocked. "No! I found it on the floor and put it on your desk yesterday," he explained. But Liu Fang didn't 3 him. She told other classmates that Zhao Yang had stolen her pen.

The rumor spread 4. By lunchtime, many students were whispering and pointing at Zhao Yang. He felt angry and hurt. He wanted to shout at everyone, but he took a deep 5 and stayed calm. He knew that losing his temper would only make things worse.

After school, Zhao Yang went to the classroom security camera. He asked the teacher on duty to 6 the video from yesterday afternoon. The footage clearly showed him picking up the pen and placing it on Liu Fang's desk. The teacher nodded and called Liu Fang to watch it together.

Liu Fang's face turned 7 as she watched the video. She realized she had been completely wrong. "I'm so sorry," she whispered, her voice 8. "I should have asked you properly instead of accusing you."

Zhao Yang looked at her for a moment. He could have been angry, but he chose to 9. "It's okay. Just remember — next time, try to understand someone before you judge them." Liu Fang nodded. From that day on, she became more careful about jumping to 10, and she and Zhao Yang eventually became good friends.
