中考英语完形填空：一双旧跑鞋

完形填空原文

Ma Lin loved running, and the school sports meet was just two weeks away. However, his only pair of running shoes was completely worn out. The soles were thin, and there was even a small 1 near the toe. His family was not rich, so he didn't want to ask his parents for a new pair.

"I'll just run in these," he told his friend Wang. "They are light and comfortable anyway." But Wang noticed how 2 he looked when he stared at other runners' shiny new shoes.

One afternoon, when Ma Lin returned from practice, he found a 3 box on his desk. He opened it and was surprised to see a pair of running shoes. They weren't brand new, but they were in excellent 4 and the exact size he needed. There was a small note inside: "I wore these when I won my first race. They brought me luck, and now I 5 they will do the same for you. Run like the wind! — Mr. Zhao, your P.E. teacher."

Ma Lin felt a rush of warmth. He quickly put them on and ran a few steps. They fit 6! For the next two weeks, he trained harder than ever. Whenever he felt 7, he would look down at the shoes and remember his teacher's encouragement.

Finally, the day of the sports meet arrived. Standing on the starting line of the 1500-meter race, Ma Lin took a deep breath. When the gun fired, he rushed forward. The race was 8, and by the last 200 meters, his legs were burning. But he pushed himself to keep going, passing one runner after another.

He crossed the finish line in first 9. As the crowd cheered, Mr. Zhao walked over and gave him a big hug. "You did it!" Mr. Zhao said. Ma Lin smiled brightly. "Thank you, Mr. Zhao," he replied. "But it wasn't just the shoes. It was the 10 you gave me."
