04-26 第2篇

阅读理解（议论文）

① Everyone knows that keeping pets is very popular. Today, many families have a dog, a cat, or even a small bird. Some people believe that keeping pets takes too much time and money, but I strongly hold the opinion that having a pet brings great benefits (好处) to people, especially to children.

② To begin with, pets are great companions (同伴). In modern society, many people live alone or feel lonely. A dog that wags (摇) its tail when you come home can make you feel loved. A cat sleeping on your lap can bring you peace. Pets listen to us without judging, which helps reduce stress and makes us happier.

⑤ In conclusion, although keeping a pet needs time and money, the love, responsibility, and health benefits they bring far outweigh (胜过) the cost. A pet is not just an animal; it is a true member of the family.

注释： companion 同伴；wag 摇（尾巴）；stress 压力；rely 依赖；valuable 有价值的；outweigh 胜过，比……重要

【解析】 养狗之所以能让人更活跃更健康是因为：你必须每天带它出去散步（take it out for a walk every day），从而获得了更多锻炼及呼吸新鲜空气的机会。这与A选项意思一致。B（狗做饭）、D（狗教游泳）太玄幻；C（永远不看电视）过于绝对。故选A。

5. 【答案】C

【题型】 词义猜测推断

【定位】 第⑤段首句 "...the love, responsibility, and health benefits they bring far outweigh (胜过) the cost."

【解析】 作者在总结陈词中提到：尽管需要金钱和时间（cost），但是它们所带来的爱、责任感及健康益处远远地“outweigh（胜过）”这成本底线。即：前者比后者更有价值或更重要（To be more important or valuable than something else）。故选C。
