03-11 第二篇

The Lost Art of Writing Letters

Nowadays, when we want to tell a friend something, we simply take out our phones and send a quick text message. It takes only a few seconds. [1] However, before the invention of the Internet, people communicated mainly by writing letters by hand. Sadly, this beautiful tradition is slowly disappearing.

Writing a physical letter is very different from typing an email. [2] You cannot simply press a "delete" button if you make a mistake. Therefore, people usually think much more carefully about what they want to say before putting pen to paper.

Furthermore, handwritten letters carry a personal touch that digital messages completely lack. [3] A text message looks exactly the same no matter who sends it. But a handwritten letter is as unique as the person who wrote it, showing their personal style and effort.

Another wonderful thing about letters is that they can be kept forever. [4] You can hide them in a special box and read them again many years later. Reading an old letter from a grandparent or an old friend can bring back beautiful memories and warm feelings.

Finally, getting a real letter in the mail is highly exciting. In a mailbox full of boring bills and advertisements, a colorful envelope stands out like a treasure. [5] So, why not pick up a beautiful pen tonight and write a letter to someone you love?

答案键（Answer Key）

[1] C [2] B [3] E [4] D [5] F

深度解析

- [1] C：

- 线索：指代关系与逻辑关联。空前说发短信（text message）“takes only a few seconds”（只需要几秒钟）。C选项“This quick speed allows us to stay connected with everyone easily”（这种飞快的速度让我们很容易与大家保持联系）中的“This quick speed（这种速度）”就是指代前一句的“只有几秒钟”。随后，空后使用“However（然而）”发生了时代的转折，引入了互联网发明前人们手工写信的慢节奏方式。

- [2] B：
  - 线索：对比引入与语境提示。空前提出段落观点：手写信与打电子邮件大不相同。B选项“When you write by hand, it requires your full attention and patience”（当你用手写时，它需要你全神贯注和耐心）是对“手写信”这一行为的具体要求描述。而空后的句子“You cannot simply press a 'delete' button...”（你不能简单地按个删除键）正是对为什么写信需要“patience（耐心和谨慎）”的详细解释，引出了随后的结果“人们落笔前会仔细思考”。

- [3] E：
  - 线索：词汇同现与逻辑解释。空前指出“handwritten letters carry a personal touch”（手写信带有一种个人色彩/人情味）。E选项“You can actually see the writer's feelings through their handwriting”（你实际上能通过他们的笔迹看到作者的感情）就是对这种“personal touch”的深入解释。随后空后拿千篇一律的数字短信来进行反面衬托，最后总结手写信展现了个人风格（personal style），前后逻辑一气呵成。

- [4] D：
  - 线索：对比逻辑与结构搭配。空前提到“Another wonderful thing about letters is that they can be kept forever”（信件的另一个奇妙之处在于它们可以被永久保存）。D选项“Unlike phone messages that are easily lost or deleted over time”（不像随着时间推移很容易丢失或删除的手机短信）运用了反衬手法。手机短信的“easily lost”与前文信件的“kept forever”形成鲜明对比，也为了后文“你可以把它们藏在特别的盒子里多年后重读”提供了对比语境。

- [5] F：
  - 线索：语义升华与总结呼应。本段描述收到信的兴奋，把信件比作账单中的宝藏。F选项“It shows that someone truly cares enough to spend their valuable time on you”（它表明有人真的在乎你，愿意为你花费他们宝贵的时间）是对为什么收到信会让人Exciting（兴奋）、为什么觉得它是宝藏的情感升华和终极解释。这种温暖的总结也为文章结尾的号召“为什么不今晚拿起笔给你爱的人写封信呢？”烘托了极好的情绪氛围。

- 干扰项分析：
  - A. As a result, handwriting is no longer taught in many modern schools.：该选项中包含“handwriting”这个文章中出现探讨的核心词。虽然从常理上看，因为

打字方便导致学校不教书法这一社会事实确实存在，但文章的主题是呼吁人们回归写信，感受写信带来的温暖、专注和独特记忆。该选项所表达的结论虽然带上了逻辑词“As a result”，但与第一段（甚至全篇）的怀旧和温情主题并不贴合，是一个偏离文章核心情感的干扰项。
