03-13 第二篇

Overcoming the Fear of Public Speaking

For many people, standing on a stage to give a speech is a terrifying experience. In fact, studies show that public speaking is often feared more than death itself. [1] However, the good news is that with the right strategies, anyone can become a confident speaker.

The first step to overcoming this fear is thorough preparation. You should know your topic inside and out before you step onto the stage. [2] This confidence will naturally calm your nerves down. Furthermore, practicing in front of a mirror or recording yourself can help you find out and correct any awkward body limits.

It is also important to change the way you think about your audience. [3] They are actually hoping that you will succeed and deliver an interesting speech. Thinking of them as friendly listeners rather than strict judges can take a lot of pressure off your shoulders.

Deep breathing is another magical tool for public speakers. Right before you go on stage, taking a few slow, deep breaths can lower your heart rate. [4] This extra oxygen in your brain helps you think more clearly and prevents your voice from shaking.

Lastly, do not worry about making a tiny mistake. [5] If you forget a word or stumble over a sentence, just smile, pause for a second, and keep going. Usually, the audience hardly even notices!

选项

Even the most famous and experienced speakers in the world are not perfect. F. This intense fear can cause a pounding heart, shaking hands, and sweating (出汗).

答案键（Answer Key）

[1] F [2] A [3] B [4] C [5] E

深度解析

- [1] F：

- 线索：同义解释与具体描述。空前提到一个惊人事实：研究显示公开演讲常常比死亡更让人害怕。F选项“This intense fear can cause a pounding heart, shaking hands, and sweating”（这种强烈的恐惧会导致心跳加速、双手发抖和出汗）中，“This intense fear（这种强烈恐惧）”完美指代了前一句中所说的对演讲的恐惧感（terrifying experience / feared），并且具体列举了恐惧时的生理表现。随后一句“However, the good news is...（然而好消息是...）”非常自然地形成了语气的转折。

- [2] A：
  - 线索：因果衔接与指代关系。空前强调了“thorough preparation（充分准备）”并且具体要求“在登台前你要彻底了解你的主题”。A选项“When you feel completely prepared, you will not worry about forgetting your words”（当你觉得准备完全充分时，你就不会担心忘词了），直接承接了准备充分的动作带来的心理变化。更重要的是，空后第一句的“This confidence...（这种自信...）”正完美指代了A项中“不担心忘词产生的底气和自信”。

- [3] B：
  - 线索：对比转折与词汇呼应。空前提出段落主旨“It is also important to change the way you think about your audience（改变你看待观众的方式也很重要）”。B选项“Instead of seeing them as enemies, remember that people are there to learn from you”（与其把他们当作敌人，记住人们在那儿是为了向你学习的），其中的“them（他们）”完美指代“audience（观众）”。随后空后继续以“They...（他们）”开头：“他们实际上正在期盼你能成功”，逻辑非常一致。

- [4] C：
  - 线索：生理表现与代词呼应。空前讲的是深呼吸的作用：“...taking a few slow, deep breaths can lower your heart rate”（做几个缓慢深呼吸可以降低心率）。C选项“This physical relaxation sends a signal to your brain that everything is perfectly safe”（这种身体放松向你的大脑发送一个信号，即一切都很安全），其中“This physical relaxation”指代的正是前文“心率降低/深呼吸”带来的生理变化效果。然后紧接着的一句“This extra oxygen...（这多余的氧气）”也正是源自深呼吸，文段衔接严丝合缝。

- [5] E：
  - 线索：论点陈述与举例前置。空前提到了“最后，别担心犯小错误”。E选项“Even the most famous and experienced speakers in the world are not perfect”（即使是世界上最著名、最有经验的演讲者也不完美）给出了不用担心犯错的理由，即任何人都不完美，以此宽慰读者。这句话作为垫手，自然而然地引出了随后的具体支招建议：“If you forget a word... just smile... keep going（假如你忘词了……微笑继续就好）”。

- 干扰项分析：

- D. Therefore, experts suggest avoiding any speech opportunities if you feel nervous.：这个选项带有“Therefore（因此）”和“experts（专家）”，看似极具权威性和总结意味。然而句子意思是“专家建议，如果你感到紧张，就避开任何演讲机会”。这与全文“克服恐惧、成为自信演讲者”的积极进取的主旋律相去甚远（属于消极逃避），逻辑上更是对第二段提出的“通过策略克服恐惧”的直接否定。属于三观偏离、立意相左的干扰项。
