中考英语完形填空：寒假图书馆之旅

完形填空原文

During the winter vacation, my mother suggested that I go to the city library. At first, I was not 1 because I thought the library would be boring. But when I walked through the front door, I changed my mind completely.

The library was much 2 than I had imagined. There were thousands of books on tall wooden shelves, and soft music was playing in the background. A friendly librarian welcomed me and asked what kind of books I 3. I told her I liked adventure stories. She led me to a section and recommended a book called "The Lost Island."

I found a comfortable seat by the window and started 4. The story was about a young boy who sailed across the ocean to find a mysterious island. The writing was so vivid that I felt like I was right there 5 him. I could almost hear the waves and smell the salty air. Before I knew it, two hours had 6.

When I looked up from the book, I noticed that the library was full of people—students, old men, and even small children. Everyone was reading 7, lost in their own worlds. It was amazing to see so many people who loved reading just like me.

Before leaving, I 8 the book and two more from the same series. The librarian stamped my library card and said, "Welcome back anytime." I smiled and promised I would 9 the next week.

On the way home, I thought about how wrong I had been. The library was not boring at all. It was a place full of 10 and knowledge. I decided to visit it every week during the vacation.
