中考英语完形填空：帮爸爸整理旧照片

完形填空原文

Last weekend, Dad asked me to help him clean the storage room. While moving boxes, I found an old photo album covered with 1. Dad's eyes lit up when he saw it. "I haven't seen this in years!" he said excitedly.

We sat on the floor and opened the album together. The first few pages showed Dad as a little boy. He was wearing a big smile and holding a toy car in his 2. I was surprised because he looked so different from now. "Is that really you?" I asked, laughing.

Dad pointed to a photo of a group of children standing in front of a school gate. "These were my best 3 in primary school," he said. "We used to play football together every day after class." He looked at the photo for a long time, and I could tell he 4 those days very much.

Then we saw a photo of Dad and Mom on their wedding day. Mom was wearing a white dress and looked very 5. Dad smiled and said, "That was the happiest day of my life." I had never seen this photo before, and it made me feel warm 6.

There were also some photos of me as a baby. In one of them, I was crying with my mouth wide open, and Dad was trying to 7 me down. "You cried a lot as a baby," Dad joked. "But you also laughed a lot." We both laughed at the funny 8.

We spent the whole afternoon looking through the album. Dad decided to put it in the living room so everyone could 9 it. I think old photos are like small time machines. They can take you back to the past and 10 you of the people and moments that matter most.
