中考英语完形填空：寒假晨跑计划

完形填空原文

When the winter vacation started, I made a plan to go jogging every morning. My father thought it was a great idea and decided to 1 me. We agreed to wake up at six thirty and run for thirty minutes around the park near our home.

On the first morning, my alarm clock rang, but I did not want to get out of bed. It was so cold 2 that I just wanted to stay under the warm blanket. But Dad knocked on my door and said, "A promise is a promise!" So I forced myself to get 3.

The air outside was freezing. I could see my breath turning into white mist. We started jogging slowly, and at first, my legs felt stiff and 4. But after a few minutes, my body warmed up and I began to feel much better. The park was peaceful in the early morning. There were only a few old people doing tai chi on the grass.

By the end of the first week, I 5 wanted to quit several times. My muscles were sore and I felt tired every afternoon. But Dad encouraged me to keep going. He said, "The hardest part is not the running itself—it's 6 the habit."

After two weeks, something amazing happened. I started to actually 7 the morning runs. I liked the fresh air and the quiet streets. I also noticed that I slept better at night and felt more 8 during the day. My friends said I even looked healthier.

When school started again, I decided to 9 jogging on weekends. Dad was very happy about my decision. He said that exercise was not just about making the body strong—it also made the mind 10. I am grateful that he pushed me to start this habit. It has truly changed my life.
