中考英语完形填空：学织围巾送妈妈

完形填空原文

My mother's birthday was coming in January, and I wanted to give her something 1. After thinking for a long time, I decided to knit a scarf for her by hand. I had never knitted before, but I thought it would be the most meaningful gift.

I went to a craft store and bought some soft pink yarn and a pair of knitting needles. The shopkeeper showed me a 2 video on knitting basics. It looked easy in the video, but when I tried it at home, I realized it was much harder than I 3.

At first, my stitches were uneven—some were too tight and some were too 4. The scarf looked more like a fishing net. I almost gave up, but then I thought about how Mom always encouraged me to keep trying. So I pulled out the messy rows and started 5.

I practiced every evening after finishing my homework. Slowly, my 6 improved. The stitches became neat and even, and the scarf began to look like a real one. My fingers often hurt from holding the needles for too long, but I did not 7.

After two weeks, I finally finished the scarf. It was not perfect—there were still a few small 8 here and there. But I wrapped it in a nice box and tied a ribbon on top. On Mom's birthday morning, I handed her the gift with a big smile.

When Mom opened the box and saw the scarf, her eyes filled with 9. She put it around her neck and hugged me tightly. "This is the best gift I have ever received," she whispered. Seeing her so happy made all the hard work completely 10. I learned that the value of a gift is not in its price, but in the love behind it.
