中考英语完形填空：学校科技节回忆

完形填空原文

Last term, our school held a science festival in the gym. Our group decided to build a small bridge 1 paper rolls and glue, testing how much weight it could carry.

At first, our design was too 2 and broke quickly. We argued a little, 3 then we listened to each other's ideas calmly. We added more support on both sides 4 the structure became stronger.

On the show day, judges walked 5 with clipboards, asking clear questions. When they placed books on our bridge, I held my breath. The bridge stayed 6 until the fifth book, and the crowd clapped loudly.

We did not win first prize, 7 we received a certificate for teamwork. That experience taught me that failure at the start does not 8 the end of a project if people keep trying.

Now, when I face difficult homework, I remember how we 9 problems step by step. Science is not only about facts, 10 about curiosity and cooperation.
