完形填空原文

At first, I worried 3 my handwriting was not neat enough. I stared at the blank paper for a long time, unsure how to start, and almost wanted to give up on the first day.

I collected colorful markers and cut some photos 4 old magazines. I also searched online for simple icons of bicycles and books so that my poster would look lively and clear from a distance. My cousin came to visit and offered 5 help. She wrote the titles in clear letters 6 I painted the borders blue and yellow. Working together made the job 7 and more enjoyable.
