中考英语完形填空：课堂上的小组讨论

完形填空原文

In our English class, Mrs. Wang often asks us to work in groups. Last Friday, our topic was "How to protect the environment in daily life." Each group had four members, and we had only fifteen minutes to get ready.

At the beginning, we didn't agree with each other. Tom wanted to talk 1 plastic bags, but Lucy preferred to discuss saving water. The air in our corner felt 2. I suggested writing down everyone's ideas first, 3 choosing the best two.

4 we did that, the discussion became smoother. I learned that listening is as 5 as speaking. When Tom shared his examples, I nodded to show I was paying attention. Lucy also 6 her tone and tried to understand us.

Finally, we presented our plan: reuse shopping bags, turn off the tap while brushing teeth, and ride bikes for short trips. Mrs. Wang praised us 7 working as a team. She said, "A good discussion is not about winning an argument, 8 about finding better answers together."

After class, I realized that group work is 9 a small society. We need respect, patience, and clear roles. I hope we can have 10 discussions like this more often.
