中考英语完形填空：冬日暖阳下读书

完形填空原文

It was a cold Saturday, but the sun came out after lunch. I carried a blanket and a novel to the balcony. My cat Mimi followed me 1 she also enjoyed warm sunshine.

I opened the book and read the first chapter 2. The story was about a boy who learned to face fear. Outside, the wind blew gently, 3 the pages turned by themselves once. I laughed and used a clip to keep them 4.

Half an hour later, my mom brought hot tea. She reminded me 5 a coat if I stayed too long. I nodded and thanked her. The tea smelled 6, and my fingers felt warm again.

Reading in winter is different from reading in summer. The world feels 7, yet the words inside the book feel closer. I wrote down two sentences I liked 8 my notebook.

When the sun moved lower, I closed the book and stretched. I felt relaxed and 9. That simple afternoon taught me that happiness doesn't always need a big plan—sometimes it is just a book, a cat, 10 a patch of sunlight.
