中考英语完形填空：给老师写感谢信

完形填空原文

Before the semester ended, I decided to write a thank-you letter 1 my English teacher, Ms. Wang. She has been teaching us 2 three years and helped me fall in love with English.

I sat at my desk and thought 3 what to write. There were so many things I wanted to say. I remembered the time when I 4 badly in a test and almost gave up. Ms. Wang talked to me after class and encouraged me 5 trying.

She also organized many fun activities, 6 English corner and drama club. These activities made learning English much 7 interesting than just reading textbooks.

I wrote three pages in total. At the end, I drew a small heart and signed my 8. The next morning, I put the letter on her desk before she 9.

Later that day, Ms. Wang found me in the hallway. Her eyes were a little red. She gave me a warm hug and said my letter was one of the 10 things she had ever read.
