06-01 第2篇

阅读理解（记叙文）

① Last September, Li Xia moved to a new city with her family. She had to leave her old school and friends behind. On her first day at Sunshine Middle School, she felt nervous and lonely. She sat alone at lunch and did not talk to anyone. "Will I ever make new friends here?" she wondered.

② The next day, during the PE class, Li Xia was asked to join a basketball game. She was not very good at it, but she tried her best. A girl named Wang Mei passed the ball to her and shouted, "Run, Li Xia! You can do it!" Li Xia caught the ball and made a shot. Though she missed, Wang Mei smiled and said, "Nice try! Let's practice together after class."

③ After class, Wang Mei came to Li Xia's desk. "I'm new here too. I transferred last year," Wang Mei said. "I know how you feel. If you like, we can have lunch together tomorrow." Li Xia's heart felt warm. She said yes. That afternoon, Wang Mei introduced her to two more students, Lin Tao and Chen Hui. They all welcomed Li Xia and asked her to join their study group.

⑤ Looking back, Li Xia learned that change can be difficult, but it can also bring new opportunities. A kind gesture (举动) from a stranger can turn into lasting friendship. She will never forget Wang Mei's smile on that PE class — it was the beginning of something wonderful.

注释： transfer 转学；gesture 举动
