10-31 第1篇

中考英语完形填空：十月总结与十一月展望

完形填空原文

October is almost over. Tonight, I sat down at my desk and thought about what I had 1 this month. I wanted to make a summary before November comes.

In October, I joined the school reading club. I 2 three books and shared my thoughts with my classmates. Reading has become an important part of my daily life. I also took part in the school sports meeting. Though I didn't win any medals, I tried my best and learned the 3 of teamwork.

However, I had some problems too. I was sometimes 4 for morning classes because I stayed up late doing homework. My math teacher said I needed to manage my time better. I agree. In November, I will go to bed 5 and get up earlier.

For the new month, I have made some plans. First, I want to improve my English. I will listen to English songs and watch short English videos every day. Second, I hope to 6 more exercise. I plan to run in the school playground for 15 minutes after school. Third, I will help my mother with housework at least once a week. She works hard and I should do my 7.

I wrote all these plans in my diary. I believe that if I stick to them, I will become a 8 person. The end of October is not an end—it is a new beginning. Let's welcome November with a 9 heart and work towards our goals!

What about you? Have you thought about your October summary and November 10?
