中考英语完形填空：参加学校地理知识竞赛

完形填空原文

Last week, our school held a geography knowledge competition. I had always been 1 in geography, so I decided to take part. I spent two weeks preparing for it. Every evening after homework, I would 2 maps and review the names of countries and their capitals.

On the day of the competition, the hall was full of students. I felt a little nervous when I sat down. The first round had 20 questions. I answered most of them 3, but one question about African rivers made me think for a long time. Luckily, I remembered the answer just before the time 4 out.

In the second round, we had to work in teams. My partner was Li Hua, who was 5 at describing landforms. We helped each other and passed the round. The final round was the most 6. Only five teams could enter. We had to answer quickly without any discussion.

When the host announced the results, I could hardly believe my ears. Our team won first 7! I was so excited that I couldn't 8 jumping up. Our geography teacher came over and said, "Well done! Your hard work has really paid 9." I learned that if we prepare well and work together, we can achieve great things. This experience made me love geography even 10. I hope to join the competition again next year.
