中考英语完形填空：和外教一起上英语课

完形填空原文

This semester, our school invited a foreign teacher from America to teach us English. Her name is Mrs. Brown, and she has a 1 way of teaching. She often uses games and stories to make our lessons interesting.

Last Tuesday, we had a special English class with her. Instead of reading from the textbook, she asked us to 2 a short play in groups. My group chose to perform a story about a lost puppy. I was 3 to play the main character, and I had to speak all my lines in English.

At first, I felt very nervous. My hands were shaking and I 4 forget my lines. But Mrs. Brown smiled at me and said, "Don't worry. Just try your best." Her words gave me 5. I took a deep breath and started to speak. To my surprise, I remembered everything and spoke quite fluently.

After our performance, Mrs. Brown said we all did a wonderful job. She especially praised our 6 and encouraged us to speak more English outside the classroom. She told us that making mistakes is part of learning and we should never be 7 of trying.

That class made me love English even more. I now understand that learning a language is not just about 8 grammar rules—it's also about using it in real situations. I hope we can have more classes like this. I will 9 my best to improve my spoken English and one day I can communicate with people from different countries 10.
