11–19 第1篇

中考英语完形填空：参加班级读书分享会

完形填空原文

Yesterday afternoon, our class held a book sharing activity. Each of us had to introduce a book we had read and explain 1 we liked it. I was a little nervous because I'm not good at speaking in front of others.

I had chosen a book called "The Little Prince". I prepared for a whole week. I wrote down the main ideas and 2 my speech several times at home. When my turn came, I stood up and walked to the front of the classroom. My heart was beating 3.

I started to share my thoughts about the book. I told my classmates that the story taught me about friendship and responsibility. The more I spoke, the 4 I felt. My teacher nodded and smiled, which made me more confident. When I finished, everyone clapped. I was so relieved and happy.

Zhang Wei shared a science fiction novel. His 5 was very vivid and we all felt as if we were in the story. Li Mei talked about a history book. She had made a mind map to help us understand the timeline. I learned a lot from 6 presentations.

Our headteacher said that reading broadens our minds and sharing helps us learn from each other. She encouraged us to 7 this activity every month. I think it's a wonderful idea. Reading has become one of my favorite 8 now. I have already chosen the book for next month's sharing—a novel about a young inventor. I can't 9 to tell my classmates about it. This experience made me realize that sharing knowledge can be as 10 as gaining it.
