中考英语完形填空：和同学一起排练课本剧

完形填空原文

Our English teacher asked us to prepare a short play based on a text from our textbook. My classmates and I decided to work together. We chose the story "The Gift of the Magi" and planned to perform it in front of the whole class. It was our first time putting on a 1 like this.

We held a meeting after school to divide the roles. Tom would play the husband and I would be the wife. Three other students would take care of the props and background music. Everyone was excited and had many 2. We wrote a simple script and practiced our lines every day during the break. At first, I felt shy and forgot my words 3. But with more practice, I became more confident.

On Wednesday afternoon, we had our first full rehearsal in the classroom. We moved the desks aside to make 4 for the stage. When we performed, our teacher watched carefully and gave us suggestions. She said we should speak more 5 so that the students at the back could hear us. She also suggested adding some gestures to make the characters more lively.

We practiced again and again. Sometimes we made mistakes and had to 6 from the beginning. But nobody complained. We all wanted to do our best for the performance. The day before the show, we checked all the props—the old watch, the wooden comb, and the long hair. Everything was 7.

Finally, the big day came. We stood on the "stage" and began our play. I was nervous at first, but when I looked at my classmates' encouraging faces, I relaxed. The performance went well and we received warm applause. Our teacher said we had done a 8 job and our teamwork was excellent. This experience taught me that with cooperation and hard work, we can achieve great things together. I will never 9 this wonderful memory of rehearsing with my friends. We were all proud of 10 achievement as a team, and we hope to perform again soon.
