中考英语完形填空：和同学一起练习英语短剧

完形填空原文

Our English teacher told us that we would put on a short play for the school English festival. My classmate Li Ming and I were asked to work 1 on a funny story about two friends. We were both excited but a little nervous because we had never acted in English before.

Every afternoon after class, we met in the empty classroom to 2. First, we read the script many times until we could remember our lines. Li Ming played the role of a lazy cat and I played a busy bee. We had to speak our lines clearly and use different 3 to show our feelings. Sometimes we laughed at our own mistakes, but we never gave up.

Our teacher often came to 4 us and gave useful advice. She said we should practice in front of a mirror to improve our expressions. We followed her suggestion and found it really helped. The more we practiced, the more 5 we became.

On the day of the performance, we put on our simple costumes and waited behind the stage. When it was our turn, we walked onto the stage and bowed to the audience. I took a deep breath and said my first line. To our surprise, everything went well. The audience laughed at the right moments and clapped loudly when we finished. We felt so 6 and proud of ourselves.

This experience taught me that teamwork is important. When we 7 each other, we can achieve things we never thought possible. I will never forget this wonderful memory and the 8 we had together. I hope we can have more 9 like this in the 10.
