中考英语完形填空：帮助新来的交换生适应校园

完形填空原文

Last week, an exchange student named Tom arrived at our school from Australia. He would stay for one month to 1 Chinese culture and improve his Chinese. Our teacher asked me to be his buddy and help him get used to school life.

On the first day, Tom looked a little 2. Everything was new to him—the teaching style, the food in the canteen, and even the way students greeted each other. I showed him around the campus and introduced him to my friends. He was very friendly and tried to 3 everyone in Chinese, although his pronunciation was sometimes funny.

The biggest challenge for Tom was the food. He was not used to eating with 4. I taught him how to hold them correctly, and he practiced again and again. By the third day, he could pick up noodles without dropping them. He was so proud of himself that he took a photo and sent it to his 5 back in Australia.

In class, Tom sometimes could not 6 what the teacher said because the lessons were in Chinese. I sat next to him and wrote simple English notes to help him follow along. He told me that he really appreciated my 7.

During the second week, Tom became more confident. He even raised his hand to answer a question in Chinese class. Although his answer was not perfect, everyone 8 for him. After class, he said to me, "Thank you for making me feel at home. You are the 9 buddy I could ask for."

Having Tom at our school was a wonderful experience. I not only helped him learn about China, but I also learned about Australian culture. This experience taught me that 10 between different cultures makes the world more colorful.
