中考英语完形填空：学做毛线手套

完形填空原文

As December arrived, the weather became colder and colder. My grandmother noticed that my hands were always red and cold when I came home from school. She said, "Let me teach you how to 1 a pair of woolen gloves. Handmade gloves are warmer than the ones from the store."

I had never knitted anything before, so I was a bit 2. Grandmother said it was not as hard as I thought. She took me to a craft shop and we chose a ball of soft blue yarn. She also bought a pair of knitting needles for beginners—they were 3 than the normal ones, which made them easier to hold.

Back at home, Grandmother sat beside me and showed me the basic stitches. The first stitch was called the "knit stitch." She moved the needles slowly so I could 4 every step. I tried to copy her movements, but my fingers felt clumsy and the yarn kept getting 5.

After an hour of practice, I could finally do the knit stitch without making mistakes. Grandmother said, "Good! Now let me teach you the purl stitch. With these two stitches, you can make 6 anything." I practiced the purl stitch for another hour until my fingers were sore.

Over the next five days, I spent thirty minutes each evening knitting. Slowly, a small piece of fabric 7 under my needles. Grandmother helped me shape it into a glove. When I finished the first one, it was not perfect—one finger was a little longer than the 8. But Grandmother said it was wonderful for a first try.

It took me three more days to finish the second glove. When I wore the pair to school, my hands stayed warm all day. My classmates were 9 when I told them I made the gloves myself. Some of them even asked me to teach them.

Knitting taught me that learning a new skill takes time and 10. But the reward is worth every minute of effort.
