中考英语完形填空：冬天校园里的流浪猫

完形填空原文

Last winter, when the snow began to fall, we noticed several stray cats near our school gate. They looked 1 and hungry in the cold wind. My classmates and I felt sorry for them and wanted to do something to help.

We decided to 2 a small team to take care of these cats. First, we collected some old boxes and warm blankets from our homes. Then we 3 a simple shelter under a tree behind the school building. The cats soon found it and came to rest there.

Every morning before class, we would bring some food and water. At first, the cats were 4 and ran away when we came near. But little by little, they began to 5 us. Sometimes they would even rub against our legs when we put down the food.

One day, a teacher saw what we were doing and 6 to join us. She brought some cat food from the pet store and taught us how to take better care of the animals. With her help, we 7 more students to our team.

When spring came, the cats looked much healthier. Although we couldn't 8 all of them home, we knew we had made a difference. The experience taught us that 9 can change lives, even in small ways. We plan to 10 this good work next winter when the cats need help again.
