12-22 第1篇

中考英语完形填空：班级举办年终总结会

完形填空原文

Last Friday afternoon, our class held a year-end summary meeting. It was a special 1 for us to look back at what we had achieved in the past year. Our head teacher, Mr. Zhang, asked each of us to 2 our thoughts and feelings about the year.

The meeting started at two o'clock. First, our class monitor gave a short 3. She talked about our class activities, sports meets, and study results. We felt proud when she mentioned how well we did in the school science 4. Everyone clapped happily.

Then it was our turn to speak. Some classmates shared their greatest 5, like winning a competition or making new friends. Others talked about their regrets and what they would do differently next year. I stood up and said that I was 6 for all the help my friends had given me. Without them, I wouldn't have improved so much in English.

At the end of the meeting, Mr. Zhang gave each of us a small gift—a notebook with our names on it. He said, "I hope you will use it to 7 your new goals for next year." We were all moved by his words.

The meeting lasted for two hours. When it was over, we took a group photo to 8 this meaningful moment. That afternoon taught me an important 9: it's good to stop and think about our progress. It helps us grow and become 10 people.
