中考英语完形填空：公交车上的座位

完形填空原文

Every morning, Zhao Kai took the No. 12 bus to school. The ride was about thirty minutes, and the bus was always 1. Most days, he had to stand all the way.

One cold winter morning, Zhao Kai got on the bus and was lucky enough to find a 2. He sat down happily and put his heavy schoolbag on his lap. The warm air inside the bus made him feel comfortable, and he almost fell asleep.

At the next stop, an old woman got on the bus. She was carrying two large bags of vegetables and walking 3. She looked around for a seat, but every seat was taken.

Zhao Kai saw her and immediately thought about 4 up. But then a small voice in his head said, "You woke up so early. You deserve to sit. Someone else will give up their seat." He pretended to look out the window and 5 the old woman.

The bus hit a bump, and the old woman nearly fell. She grabbed a pole just in time, her vegetables almost spilling out of the bags. Still, 6 on the bus stood up.

Zhao Kai felt his face grow hot. He couldn't ignore it anymore. He stood up and said, "Grandma, please take my 7."

The old woman smiled gratefully. "Thank you, young man. You're very 8," she said as she sat down.

A little girl sitting nearby looked up at Zhao Kai with big, round eyes. Then she pulled on her mother's sleeve and whispered, "Mom, that big brother is so nice. I want to be like him."

Zhao Kai heard this and felt something warm spread through his 9. Standing for the rest of the ride didn't feel tiring at all. In fact, it felt like the best bus ride he had ever had.

He learned that doing the right thing is not always 10, but it always feels good afterward.
