中考英语完形填空：演讲比赛前的紧张

完形填空原文

The English speech competition was only one week away. I had been preparing for 1 a month, but I still felt very nervous. Every time I stood in front of the mirror to practice, my hands would 2. I was afraid I would forget my words on stage.

My teacher, Mr. Wang, noticed my worry. "Being nervous is 3," he said. "Even famous speakers feel that way. The key is to turn your nervousness into 4." He suggested I practice in front of my classmates first. At first, I was too shy to try. But with his 5, I agreed.

The first practice was difficult. My voice 6 and I made several mistakes. However, my classmates did not laugh. Instead, they gave me warm 7. Their support made me believe I could do it. I practiced again and again. Each time, I felt a little more 8.

On the day of the competition, I took a deep breath and walked onto the stage. I remembered Mr. Wang's words: "Focus on your message, not on your fear." I finished my speech successfully. Although I didn't 9 first place, I was proud of myself. I had overcome my fear and learned that 10 can make us grow.
