中考英语完形填空：午休时的秘密计划

完形填空原文

During the lunch break, my friends and I had a secret plan. Our class teacher, Mrs. Chen, would have her birthday the next day. We wanted to 1 her a surprise. We gathered in the empty classroom and discussed our ideas quietly.

"Let's make a birthday card with all our 2 on it," suggested Xiaoming. "And we could sing a birthday song when she enters the classroom," I added. Everyone agreed. We divided the work: some would 3 the card, some would buy a small cake, and some would keep the secret from Mrs. Chen.

The next morning, we arrived at school early. We 4 the classroom with balloons and put the card on the desk. When Mrs. Chen walked in, we all stood up and sang "Happy Birthday." She was so 5 that her eyes became wet. "Thank you, everyone. I will never 6 this day," she said.

That afternoon, Mrs. Chen brought us some cookies. "You gave me a wonderful surprise, and I want to share my happiness with you," she said. We learned that 7 brings joy not only to others but also to ourselves. A little 8 can create warm memories. From that day on, our class became 9 than before. We understood that showing 10 to teachers makes school life more beautiful.
