中考英语完形填空：午休时的教室风波

完形填空原文

It was a quiet noon. Most students were taking a nap at their desks. I was about to fall asleep when I heard a loud 1. I looked up and saw that the blackboard had fallen to the ground. Pieces of chalk were scattered everywhere.

The noise woke everyone up. For a moment, we all sat in 2, not knowing what to do. Then our monitor stood up and said, "Let's clean it up together." She began to pick up the chalk, and one by one, we all 3 in. Some students moved the broken blackboard to the corner. Others swept the floor. In less than ten minutes, the classroom was 4 again.

Our teacher came in later and was surprised to see everything in order. "Who did this?" she asked. We looked at each other and smiled. "We all did it," our monitor replied. The teacher's face 5 with pride. "I'm proud of you," she said. "You didn't wait for others to solve the problem. You took 6 and worked as a team."

That afternoon, I learned something important. When 7 happens, complaining doesn't help. What matters is taking action. Everyone has the 8 to make a difference. And when we work together, we can 9 any difficulty. That small incident became a 10 moment for our class—we discovered that we were stronger when we stood together.
