中考英语完形填空：咖啡店窗边的座位

完形填空原文

There is a small coffee shop near my home. I often go there on weekend afternoons. My favorite seat is by the window. I can 1 the street and watch people walk by. The shop is not big, but it has a warm feeling. The owner, Aunt Li, always 2 a smile when she serves coffee.

Last Saturday, I went to the shop as usual. I ordered a cup of hot chocolate and sat by the window. Soon a heavy rain started. I saw an elderly woman 3 outside without an umbrella. She looked worried. I 4 for a moment, then took my umbrella and ran out. "Let me walk you to the bus stop," I said. She was surprised but thankful. When we got there, she said, "Young man, you have a kind 5." I smiled and went back to the shop. My chocolate was cold, but I didn't mind. I felt good inside.

Aunt Li saw what happened. She brought me a 6 cup of hot chocolate. "On the house," she said. "Good deeds should be rewarded." I was touched. That day I learned that small acts of kindness can 7 a difference. They don't need to be big or expensive. Sometimes a simple help is enough to make someone's day better.

Now I still visit the shop every weekend. The seat by the window is like my little corner. I read books, do homework, or just watch the world go by. The coffee shop has become more than a place to drink. It's a place where I feel 8 and at peace. I hope it will stay there for a long time, so more people can 9 its warmth. Sometimes the best things in life are simple — a warm drink, a good seat, and a kind heart. That's what the window seat 10 me.
