中考英语完形填空：社区志愿服务

完形填空原文

Last summer, I joined a community volunteer program. Every Saturday morning, I went to the community center to help elderly people. At first, I was not sure if I could do the job 1. I had never worked with old people before. But the leader of the program said, "Just be 2 and patient. They will like you."

My main task was to read newspapers for Mr. Wang, who has poor eyesight. He is over eighty years old but still loves to know what is happening in the world. When I read to him, he would sometimes 3 and ask me questions. I learned a lot from our conversations. He told me stories about his youth and taught me to 4 every day. I began to look forward to our meetings.

One day, Mr. Wang said to me, "Young people like you give us 5. You make us feel that we are not alone." His words made me realize that even small acts of kindness can 6 a big difference. I felt proud of what I was doing. The experience also helped me 7 my own grandparents more. I started to visit them more often and listen to their stories.

By the end of the summer, I had made many new friends at the community center. The volunteer work did not bring me money, but it brought me something much more ___8___—happiness and a sense of purpose. I have decided to continue volunteering in the future. Helping others has become an important 9 of my life. I hope more young people will join in and 10 their time to help those in need. Together, we can make our community a warmer place.
