中考英语完形填空：自行车旅行

完形填空原文

This summer, my dad suggested that we go on a bicycle trip together. I was both excited and a little 1. I had never ridden my bike for more than an hour before, and Dad said this trip would take the whole day.

We got up very early on Saturday morning. Mum prepared some sandwiches and bottles of water for us. We put everything into our backpacks and 2 off at six o'clock. The morning air was cool and fresh. Birds were singing in the trees along the road. I felt full of 3.

After riding for about two hours, we reached a small village. An old farmer was working in his field. He waved at us and shouted, "Good morning! Where are you going?" We told him we were heading to the lake. He smiled and said, "It's a 4 place. You'll love it."

By noon, the sun was very strong and I started to feel tired. My legs were sore and I wanted to 5. Dad noticed my struggle and said, "Let's take a break under that big tree." We sat down, drank some water, and ate our sandwiches. After the rest, I felt much 6.

We continued riding and finally arrived at the lake in the early afternoon. The water was clear and blue, surrounded by green hills. It was more beautiful than I had 7. We sat by the lake and enjoyed the peaceful view. Dad said, "Do you see? The best things in life are worth the 8."

On the way back, I did not feel as tired as before. Perhaps it was because the beautiful scenery had given me new strength. When we got home, Mum asked us how the trip was. I said, "It was 9! I want to do it again." Dad laughed and said, "That's my boy."

That bicycle trip taught me that sometimes you need to push through difficulties to 10 something truly wonderful.
