中考英语完形填空：河边钓鱼

完形填空原文

Last Sunday, my dad took me fishing by the river. We got up early and drove for about half an hour to reach a quiet 1 outside the city. The weather was perfect — the sun was shining and there was a gentle breeze.

Dad set up our fishing rods and taught me how to put the bait on the hook. "Be 2," he said. "The fish can smell us if we move too much." I sat still on the small stool and waited. At first, I felt a bit impatient. Nothing seemed to be happening. But Dad said fishing teaches us to wait and 3.

After nearly an hour, I felt a pull on my line! My heart beat fast. I carefully pulled the rod up and saw a silver fish 4 in the sunlight. "Well done!" Dad cheered. I was so excited that I could not stop smiling. We put the fish in our bucket and 5 fishing.

We caught three more fish that morning. Dad said we would take them home and Mum would cook them for dinner. On our way back, we passed by a beautiful field of 6. The yellow flowers danced in the wind. I told Dad that I wanted to come again next weekend.

Fishing has made me understand that good things come to those who wait. We cannot 7 success in a hurry. Sometimes we need to slow down and enjoy the moment. Dad also said that spending time in 8 helps us feel calm and peaceful.

I used to think fishing was boring, but now I find it really 9. It is not just about catching fish — it is about being with family and learning from nature. I hope we can have more 10 like this together.
