中考英语完形填空：帮妈妈整理衣柜

完形填空原文

Last Saturday, Mum asked me to help her tidy the wardrobe. I had nothing else to do, so I agreed. I did not expect it to be fun, but it turned out to be a special 1 with my mum.

We took everything out of the wardrobe and laid it on the bed. There were winter coats, summer dresses, and many things Mum had not worn for years. "Let us 2 what to keep and what to give away," Mum said. We went through each piece together. Some clothes brought back memories. Mum held up an old dress and said, "I wore this on my first date with your dad." Her eyes were 3.

I found a small box at the bottom. Inside were old photos and letters. Mum sat down and looked through them. She told me stories about her childhood and how she met Dad. I had never heard some of these 4 before. It was like discovering a secret part of my family.

We decided to give away three bags of clothes to people in need. Mum said that things we no longer use can still 5 others. "One person's old coat can be another person's warmth," she told me. I felt good knowing we were helping someone.

After four hours, the wardrobe was clean and 6. Everything had its place. Mum hugged me and said, "Thank you for your help. I could not have done it without you." I realised that sometimes the best way to show 7 is to spend time together and help with simple tasks.

That afternoon, I learned more about my mum than I had in years. I learned that she keeps old things because they hold 8. I learned that she cares about helping others. Most importantly, I learned that a boring job can become meaningful when you do it with someone you 9.

I will never complain about helping with housework again. It is not just work — it is a chance to be with family and learn their 10. I am grateful for that Saturday with Mum.
