中考英语完形填空：给老师送贺卡

完形填空原文

Teacher's Day was coming. Our class decided to make greeting cards for our teachers. Each of us would write a message of thanks. I wanted to make my card special because my English teacher, Ms Wang, had helped me a lot over the past year.

I bought some coloured paper, glue, and a few stickers. I had never made a greeting card before, so I searched online for ideas. I found a simple design: fold the paper in half, cut out a heart shape on the front, and 1 a message inside. I decided to try it.

I spent an hour making the card. I drew some flowers and a sun on the cover. I wrote "Thank you, Ms Wang!" in large letters. Inside, I wrote a short 2 about how she had encouraged me when I failed an English test. She had said, "Mistakes help us learn. Don't give up." Those words had stayed with me and helped me improve. I also thanked her for making our lessons 3 with games and stories.

On Teacher's Day, we all handed our cards to our teachers before class. When I gave my card to Ms Wang, she smiled and said, "Thank you! May I open it now?" I nodded. She read it carefully, and I saw her eyes become a little 4. She said, "This means a lot to me. I'm so glad I could help you. Keep working hard!" I felt warm inside. A simple card could 5 so much emotion.

Later that day, I saw that Ms Wang had put our cards on her desk. She kept them there for the whole week. Every time I passed her office, I felt 6 to see my card among them. It reminded me that teachers care about their students and that our gratitude matters to them.

Making the card taught me something important. We should not wait for special occasions to express our thanks. A small act of 7 can make someone's day. I have decided to thank my parents and friends more often. Sometimes we forget to say "thank you" to the people who 8 us every day. Let us not take them for granted. A kind word or a small gift can 9 our appreciation and strengthen our relationships. Gratitude is a gift we can give to others, and it costs nothing but means 10.
