中考英语完形填空：班级音乐会

完形填空原文

Our class decided to hold a mini concert before the winter holiday. Everyone was excited because we could show our talents and have fun together. We had three weeks to prepare.

I played the guitar, so I signed up to perform a song. My best friend Lin Tao played the piano. We decided to 1 a duet together. We practised every day after school in the music room. At first, our timing was off, but we kept trying until we could play in perfect harmony.

Other classmates had different talents. Zhang Mei could sing beautifully. Wang Lei could play the flute. Some girls prepared a group dance. We all had something to 2, and that made our concert special.

We also needed someone to be the host. Li Na volunteered because she was confident and had a clear voice. She wrote a short 3 for each performance. She would introduce the performer and the piece, making the audience feel welcome.

The day of the concert finally arrived. Our classroom was decorated with balloons and coloured paper. Parents and teachers were invited to watch. I was very 4 before my turn. My hands were cold and sweaty. But when Lin Tao and I walked onto the "stage" (the front of the classroom), the familiar music calmed me down.

We played our piece without any mistakes. The audience clapped loudly. I looked at my parents — they were smiling and taking photos. I felt a great sense of 5. All our practice had paid off.

The concert lasted for about an hour. There were songs, dances, and even a short magic show. The last performance was a choir — the whole class sang a song together. The 6 was warm and joyful. Everyone was smiling.

After the concert, our teacher said she was proud of us. "You not only showed your talents but also learned to work as a 7," she said. "Preparing for this concert required cooperation and patience."

We took a lot of photos and ate snacks together. It was a wonderful memory. I kept the programme sheet as a 8. On it were the names of all the performers and their pieces. Maybe years later, I will look at it and remember this special day.

That night, I wrote in my diary: "Today we held our class concert. I was nervous at first, but the moment I started playing, everything felt right. Music brings people 9. I am grateful for my classmates and this unforgettable 10."
