中考英语完形填空：学唱英文歌

完形填空原文

During the summer holiday, my cousin Lucy taught me how to sing English songs. She said it was a fun way to improve my 1 and pronunciation. At first, I thought it would be too hard because I was not good at English.

We started with a simple song called "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star." Lucy played the music on her phone and sang the first line. I tried to 2 after her. My pronunciation was poor and I often got the words wrong. Lucy did not laugh at me. She said, "Nobody is perfect at the beginning. Just keep practising."

Every afternoon we practised for about thirty minutes. Lucy wrote down the 3 of difficult words so I could read them correctly. She also explained the meaning of the lyrics. I learned that "twinkle" means to shine with a flickering light. Understanding the words made singing more 4.

After two weeks, I could sing the whole song without mistakes. Lucy suggested we try a harder song. We chose "You Are My Sunshine." The tempo was faster and there were more new words. I had to listen to the song many times and 5 the lyrics by heart. Sometimes I forgot a line and had to stop, but Lucy always encouraged me to try again.

One day, my family had a small gathering. My aunt asked me to sing something. I was 6 at first, but then I thought of all the practice I had done. I took a deep breath and sang "You Are My Sunshine." Everyone clapped when I finished. My grandmother said she was proud of me. I felt so happy that my hard work had 7 off.

Now I often sing English songs when I am doing homework or walking to school. It helps me remember new words and phrases. Singing has become one of my favourite 8 to learn English. I want to thank Lucy for her 9. Without her help, I would never have 10 this enjoyable method.
