中考英语完形填空：参加诗歌朗诵会

完形填空原文

Our school's Poetry Recitation Contest was held last Friday. I had never taken part in such an event before, so I felt both nervous and 1. I chose a famous Chinese poem about spring and practiced reciting it every day for two weeks.

On the day of the contest, I wore my best clothes and went to the school hall 2. When my name was called, I walked onto the stage. My hands were shaking a little, but I took a deep 3 and began to recite. I tried to put my feelings into every word and express the beauty of the poem.

To my surprise, the audience listened 4 and gave me a warm applause when I finished. I won the second prize! The judge said my recitation was full of 5 and that I had shown a good understanding of the poem. I was so happy that I could 6 believe it.

Looking back, I realize that the key to success was 7. Without daily practice, I would not have done so well. My Chinese teacher also told me that reading poetry can help us appreciate the 8 of language. From now on, I plan to read more poems in my 9 time. Maybe next year I will try to win the first 10!
