中考英语完形填空：参加社区敬老活动

完形填空原文

Last weekend, our school organised a volunteer activity to visit the elderly in the community. I joined the activity with some of my classmates. We prepared some gifts and performances to 1 the elderly residents.

When we arrived at the community centre, many elderly people were already waiting for us. They smiled when they saw us. We first helped them clean their rooms and water the plants. Grandma Li, an 80-year-old lady, said she lived alone and often felt 2. Our visit made her day much brighter.

After the cleaning, we put on a small performance. Some students sang songs, others danced, and I 3 a poem. The elderly clapped their hands happily. Grandma Wang, who used to be a music teacher, even sang a folk song with us. Her voice was still clear and beautiful. We were all 4 by her spirit.

Then we sat down and chatted with them. They told us stories about the old days — how life was 5 when they were young, and how the city had changed over the years. We listened carefully. I realised that the elderly had so much wisdom to share. Spending time with them was not only helpful to them but also 6 for us.

Before we left, we promised to 7 again. Grandma Li held my hand and said, "Thank you for coming. You are like sunshine on a cloudy day." Her words touched my heart. I understood that a little 8 could mean so much to someone who feels lonely.

The activity taught me an important lesson: we should respect and care for the elderly. They have given so much to our society. It is our 9 to make them feel loved and valued. I will take part in more such activities in the future and 10 my friends to join me.
