10–11 第1篇

中考英语完形填空：给班级黑板报画插画

完形填空原文

Last Friday afternoon, our class teacher asked me to draw some 1 for the class blackboard newspaper. I was excited but also a little nervous because I had never done it before.

The topic of the blackboard newspaper was "My Dream". I thought 2 for a while and decided to draw a student reaching for the stars. I took out my colored chalk and began to work. At first, I drew too 3, and the picture didn't look right. I had to 4 it and start again.

My deskmate Li Ming saw that I was worried. He said, "Don't give up. You draw well. Let me help you 5 the chalk." With his help, I drew more carefully. Little by little, the picture became better. The stars shone 6 and the student's face looked hopeful.

When I finished, many classmates came to look. They said the picture was beautiful. Our teacher also gave me a small 7. She said, "You did a great job. This is exactly what we need." I felt very happy. From this 8, I learned that it's okay to make mistakes. The important thing is to keep trying and never 9 on your dreams. Now I look forward to the next 10 to draw for our class again.
