At first, we had different ideas and found it 3 to reach an agreement. Then we decided to meet every Friday afternoon to 4 our project. We divided the work: one person was in charge of the buildings, another of the trees and parks, and I 5 the report.

We worked hard for three weeks. Sometimes we felt 6, but we encouraged each other. When we had problems, we would 7 them together instead of giving up. Everyone tried their best to do their part.

At last, we 8 our model. It had tall buildings, a clean river, and many green areas. Our teacher said our work was 9 and we got an "A". We were so proud!
