10–13 第1篇

中考英语完形填空：秋天的校园美景

完形填空原文

Autumn has arrived, and our campus has become a beautiful place. Every morning when I 1 school, I cannot help but stop and look at the scenery around me. The trees along the road have turned golden and red, and fallen leaves cover the ground like a soft carpet.

The best time to enjoy the campus view is in the early morning. A light 2 often hangs over the playground, making everything look like a dream. The sun rises slowly and its warm light 3 through the leaves. I like to take a walk around the small lake behind the teaching building. The water is clear and 4, reflecting the blue sky and colourful trees.

My favourite spot is the bench under a big maple tree. I often sit there during the break, 5 the scenery or just watching the leaves fall. Sometimes a gentle wind blows, and the leaves dance in the air. It feels so 6 that I forget all my worries.

Our school garden is also worth a visit in autumn. Chrysanthemums of different colours are in full bloom. Bees and butterflies 7 among the flowers. The smell of the flowers is sweet and pleasant. Many students come here to take photos or have a short rest.

Autumn on campus teaches me to slow down and enjoy the simple beauty of nature. When winter comes, the leaves will be gone, but these 8 moments will stay in my heart forever. I think we should 9 every beautiful day and be thankful for what we have. That is perhaps the most important 10 that autumn brings to us.
