中考英语完形填空：第一次当校园广播站主持人

完形填空原文

Last month, I was chosen to be a host for our school radio station. When I heard the news, I felt both excited and 1. I had never spoken in front of so many people before. The teacher told me that I would read the morning news and play some music for the whole school.

On my first day, I arrived at the radio room early. I 2 the script several times to make sure I would not make any mistakes. My hands were shaking when I picked up the microphone. "Relax," said the teacher. "Just speak clearly and 3."

The music started, and then it was my turn. I took a deep breath and began to read. At first, my voice sounded a bit 4, but soon I became more confident. I read the weather report, the school news, and a short story. When I finished, the teacher gave me a thumbs-up. I felt so 5 that I could not stop smiling.

After that day, I host the radio programme every Tuesday morning. I have learned a lot. Speaking clearly is important, but so is choosing the right 6. I try to pick songs that students enjoy and news that is useful. Sometimes I make small mistakes, but I have learned to 7 them and keep going.

Being a radio host has helped me become braver. I used to be shy when speaking in class, but now I can stand in front of others more 8. If you get a chance to try something new, do not be afraid. The first step might be difficult, but the 9 is wonderful. I am thankful for this 10 and I will do my best to make our school radio better.
