中考英语完形填空：学织围巾

完形填空原文

When winter came, I wanted to make a scarf for my grandmother. She always takes care of me, and I wished to give her something 1. I had never knitted before, so I asked my mother to teach me.

Mother brought out two knitting needles and a ball of wool. She showed me the basic 2: cast on, knit, and cast off. At first, my hands moved slowly and I made many 3. The wool sometimes fell from my needles. I felt a little frustrated, but my mother encouraged me. She said, "Don't worry. 4 needs practice. You will get better."

I practiced every day after school. Little by little, my stitches became more even. After two weeks, I had knitted a long strip. It was time to 5 off and finish the scarf. I was so happy when I saw the finished scarf. Although it was not perfect, it was made with my 6 love.

On Grandma's birthday, I gave her the scarf. When she put it around her neck, her eyes became wet. She hugged me and said, "This is the most beautiful 7 I have ever received. Thank you, my dear." I learned that handmade gifts can 8 much more than bought ones. They carry our hearts in them. Now I am thinking about knitting a hat for my father. I believe he will 9 it too. Knitting has become one of my favorite ways to 10 my love for my family.
