完形填空原文

Our school was going to hold a debate competition next month, and they needed to 1 students for the team. When I saw the notice on the bulletin board, I felt both excited and nervous.

I had always enjoyed 2 different topics with my friends, but speaking in front of a large audience was something new to me. I decided to give it a try anyway. After school, I went to the speech room where the selection was held.

There were about thirty students waiting. The teacher explained the rules: each of us would have three minutes to present our 3 on the topic "Should students use smartphones at school?" I had thought about this topic before, so I wasn't completely unprepared.

When my turn came, I took a deep breath and walked to the front. I 4 that smartphones could help us look up information, but they might also distract us from listening in class. I tried to speak clearly and make eye contact with the judges.

To my surprise, I was chosen! The teacher said my arguments were logical and I stayed 5 during my speech. I was so happy that I could hardly believe it.

Now I need to practice more with my new teammates. We will meet every Tuesday after school to 6 our debating skills. I hope we can do well in the competition and bring 7 to our school.

Looking back, I'm glad I didn't 8 to join. Sometimes we need to step out of our comfort zone to discover our 9. If you have a dream, don't be afraid to try. You might 10 yourself!
