中考英语完形填空：第一次主持学校升旗仪式

完形填空原文

Last Monday was a special day for me. I was chosen to host the flag-raising ceremony for the first time. I had always watched other students do it and 1 what it would be like to stand there. Now my dream had come true.

I woke up very early that morning. I put on my neatest uniform and practiced my script one more 2. When I arrived at school, the playground was still quiet. I stood behind the stage and felt my hands getting cold. My teacher came over and said, "Just be 3. You've prepared well." Her words helped me calm down.

The bell rang and students began to gather. I walked onto the stage with the national flag team. My heart was beating so fast that I could 4 hear it. I took a deep breath and started to speak. "Dear teachers and students, good morning. The flag-raising ceremony will now begin."

Everything went 5. The flag was raised slowly while we sang the national anthem. I looked at the red flag rising against the blue sky and felt a deep sense of pride. When the ceremony ended, I announced, "The ceremony is over. Thank you." The students clapped and I felt a wave of 6.

After the ceremony, my headteacher patted me on the shoulder and said I had done a great job. She told me that hosting such an event was an honor and a 7. I learned that with enough preparation and courage, we can overcome our fears. This experience will always 8 in my memory. I am grateful for the opportunity and hope to serve our school in more ways in the 9. Every challenge we face helps us grow and become 10 people.
